Church Weekend Away at Landgut Engelsbach

2 – 5 June 2017

Church Weekend 2017

Why not come and join the Church Weekend Away which provides another great opportunity to connect with the extended church family spending time together in relaxed surroundings, enjoying fun and fellowship and taking time out to listen to God's Word together.

Andrew and Katherine Cornes will be joining us from the south coast of England. They have been married for 32 years and have raised five children. Andrew served as curate (assistant minister) for 12 years at two high profile churches: St Michael-le-Belfry in York, and All Soul's Langham Place in London. After 3 years as rector of a church in Pittsburgh, USA, he was a vicar in Crowborough, south of London, for 26 years until his retirement in 2015.

Andrew will work with us through the topic of

How the cross affects every part of life.

TRANSLATION / ÜBERSETZUNG

The sessions will be in English, however, simultaneous translation into German will be available via headsets. / Die Sessions werden auf Englisch gehalten und simultan über Kopfhörer ins Deutsche übersetzt.

Please indicate on the registration form if you would like translation. / Bitte gebt bei der Anmeldung Euer Interesse an einer Übersetzung an.

There will be small groups in English and German.

LOCATION

Landgut Engelsbach is situated in the beautiful "Thüringer Wald" and offers a wide variety of recreational activities and places of interest in the surrounding area.
